

Home Council of Chief Scout Executive Bob Mazzuca Fundraiser

Council Shoulder Strip

and Esselen Lodge Flap

History

Mr. Robert J. Mazzuca is a former Scout from San Juan Bautista, earning the Rank of Eagle Scout in Troop 28 (now 428) in 1964. During his scouting youth, he attended Camp Pico Blanco for 2 summers and later served on the Pico Blanco summer camp staff for 2 years. During his time with the Monterey Bay Area Council Mr. Mazzuca achieved the Brotherhood Honor as a member of Esselen Lodge.

These patches are created using a special proprietary process with original art transferred directly onto the embroidery, creating a holographic, or 3-D appearance. Final project color subject to border change.

Mr. Mazzuca has approved the use of the Chief Scout Executive emblem for this fundraising campaign.

A limited number of patches will be made, order yours today!
Orders must be submitted by December 15, 2008.
